I- READING (10 MARKS)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Seumas McSporran is a very busy man. He is 60 years old and he has twelve jobs. He is a postman, a policeman, a fireman, a taxi driver, a school – bus driver, a boatman, an ambulance man, an accountant, a petrol attendant, and an undertaker. Also, he and his wife, Margaret, have a shop and a small hotel. Seumas lives and works on the island of Gigha in the west of Scotland. Only 120 people live on Gigha but in the summer 150 tourists come by boat every day. Tourists like the island because it is very calm and quiet.

Every weekday Seumas gets up at 6:00 a.m. and makes breakfast for the hotel guests. At 8:00 a.m., he drives the island’s children to school. At 9:30 a.m., he collects the post from the boat and delivers it to the houses on the island. He also works at the island’s only petrol station. Then he helps Margaret in the shop. Margaret is a hardworking lady. She maintains the hotel very nicely. She serves fresh foods and looks after the customer’s demands.

Seumas says: ‘Margaret likes being busy, too. We never have holidays and we don’t like watching TV. In the evenings Margaret makes supper and I do the accounts. At 10:00 p.m., we have a mug of tea and then we go to bed. Perhaps our life is not very exciting, but we like it’.
