Seumas lives and works on the island of Gigha in the west of Scotland. Only 120 people live on Gigha but in summer 150 tourists come by boat every day.

Every weekday Seumas gets up at 6.00 and makes breakfast for the hotel guests. At 8.00 he drives the island's children to school. At 9.30 he collects the post from the boat and delivers it to all the houses on the island. He also works at the island's only petrol station. Then he helps Margaret in the shop.

He says: ‘Margaret likes being busy, too. We never have holidays and we don't like watching television. In the evenings Margaret makes supper and I do the accounts. At 10.00 we have a mug of tea and then we go to bed. Perhaps our life isn't very exciting, but we like it.’
