Seville is the Capital of Andalucía, and the largest city in Southern Spain, with a population of 750,000. It stands on the banks of the Guadalquivir River. It is one of Europe's largest historical centres with many beautiful old buildings. Tourists also come for its famous fiesta in April.

The Arabs ruled the city from 711 to 1248. They built the Alcazar Palace and the Giralda tower. In 1503 Seville became the most important port in Spain for ships sailing to South America, and it was a very rich cultural centre. The famous painter Diego Velasquez was born here in 1599.

Flamenco began in the 17th century as a song and dance with very fast hand clapping. The guitar music came later. In the 18th century, one of the best flamenco schools in the world began in the famous Triana district in Seville. Visitors can still find real flamenco here in the music cafés, but the music does not start before midnight!

Vienna, or Wien in German, is the capital of Austria. It stands on the banks of the River Danube and is the gateway between east and west Europe. Its music, theatre, museums, and parks make it a popular tourist centre. It has a population of over 1,500,000.

Vienna has a rich history. Its university opened in 1365, and is one of the oldest in Europe. From 1558 to 1806, it was the centre of the Holy Roman Empire and it became an important cultural centre for art and learning in the 18th and 19th centuries.
